

John Scott Lamb

March 21, 1961 - December 2, 2024

Mr. John Scott Lamb, 63, of Sharpsburg, passed away Monday, December 2, 2024, surrounded by family at his home. He was born at Edwards Air Force Base, California, to Pauletta Gelwicks Lamb and the late Archie Robert Lamb, Jr., on March 21, 1961.

John grew up in Jonesboro, Georgia, from the age of 8. He graduated from Jonesboro High School in 1979. He later joined the Navy from March 1980 to March 1986 as an E6 Electronics Technician on a Minesweeper. After leaving the Navy he moved back to Georgia and went to work for Genuity from 1986 to 2002. He then worked at HBP Contractors and Consultants as CFO from 2002 to 2024. He was a mentor to many as a Baseball Coach for 28-plus years and a Softball Coach for the past 2 years. He loved his family dearly, boating, fishing, woodworking, baseball, fixer of everything, and being a dad and grandfather, aka POPS. He stepped up as a great dad and had a positive influence on his stepkids.

Per his wishes, there will be no funeral services. We will follow his wishes to have a celebration of life at a later time.

“ I didn't know Coach John well, only 2 softball seasons as Riley's coach, but he is one of those souls that will forever remain in your memory. A skilled and gentle coach, coaching the talented as well as those without natural talent the same. Young folks have certainly lost a treasure.

“ John loved to see the girls having fun. He'd tell Dawn “just look at em” I know that's why they did all they do and I'll never forget that. Heaven gained a great man. We will miss him.
