What a beautiful tribute to an awesome, talented man! To those of you who shared, thank you. Also thank you for sharing this video for those of us who could not be there. John will certainly be missed, but his legacy will live forever. He would be very grateful and proud.

“ I was lucky to have an interior design internship with John many years ago in Moultrie. He was a great teacher and a wonderful man. I really enjoyed our time together and was wondering how he was doing when I discovered he had passed away. Sending my sincere condolences to all his loved ones. He will be missed.

“ I really thought John was a man for all seasons...I didn't realize he wrote so many books...I bought two of them...In fact about 10 of his Tales of a Southern Palazzo...Every time Bucky had an organ parties in his house I admired John's interior design. These two are greatly missed by me...And died way too much before their time. Those memories were like Gone With the Wind with me Mike Knight

“ I met John in 1969 at the Fox Theatre in Atlanta and we remained friends for all these years. We were just kids back then but our love for old theaters and theatre organs kept us in touch all these years. After I moved to Charlotte we got together on occasion with Bob VanCamp and Joe Patten. I will miss you John! Charlie Clayton

“ John was the first person that welcomed us into the ATOS Atlanta family. He encouraged me to learn to play my mother's beloved Thomas organ and frequently checked on my progress at every meeting. He will be greatly missed but I know that he is looking down into my living room checking on my progress. Rest in peace sweet angel!

“ John was such a wonderful kind individual. I got to know John thru his classmate Gene Hodges also from Moultrie.

I'll never forget all of us together (myself, Gene, Bob Renna and John) at the Los Angeles A.T.O.S. convention and joking about a 110 rank Holtkamp organ for the Hollywood Bowl!

After the covention we all took a roadtrip to the Hearst Castle in San Simeon!

We will miss you Johnny! We love you!

“ This is such a shock! John was a long time friend going way back to when we were little kids. I always thought his mom was such a special lady. John was talented in so many ways and he shared his talents with so many. He will be missed tremendously. My sincere sympathy to Mitch and all of John's family. May God bless you. Rest in Peace friend.

John Clark McCall

John was a fountain of knowledge about Packard automobiles, Sea Island, Cloisters, antiques, and theater organs and their music. It was impossible to spend time with John and not come away more knowledgeable than you were when you arrived.
