

Johnny Mack Driver

January 9, 1947 - August 12, 2016

Johnny Mack Driver, aged 69, gently left this world in the peaceful surroundings of his home on August 12, 2016. He was born in Carrollton, Georgia on January 9, 1947 and was the son of the late Buford Franklin and Virginia Estelle Walton Driver. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his daughter Frances Blake. His education was in the Carroll County Schools. After high school, he joined the United States Army and was trained as a medical corpsman. His working career was in telecommunications as an employee of BellSouth and he retired in 2002. For Johnny, the simple things in life were of utmost importance and included friends, family and a great love of the outdoors with camping being a great way to relax and unwind. Johnny is survived by his wife Debbie Stiles Driver. His sons are Jason Scott Driver and Kyle F. Blake and his wife Sara. He is the proud grandfather of two grandchildren and one great grandchild. Also surviving are his siblings Ann Roberson, Jerry B. Driver and Tammy Watts. He is also survived by Debbie's siblings Tina Turner and her husband Earl, Curtis Stiles and his wife Cindy. Of great importance to Johnny was his furry friend JoJo, who was forever by his side. Johnny's life will be remembered in a service to be held in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street on Monday, August 15, 2016 at 2:00 PM; the service being led by Mike Harris. Interment with appropriate military honors will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. The family is receiving friends at the funeral home on Sunday evening between 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM. “ I not only lost a Loving, Kind, and Understanding Husband on Friday I also lost my "Best Friend". I cannot imagine what life is going to be like without him. He always knew the right thing to say to make everything ok again. I will miss his calmness and words of wisdom. I am relieved that he is no longer in pain and suffering but I miss him so much. RIP Baby, I Love You With All My Heart!
