“ Wanda and Johnny, When I first met Kyle, I thought he was the most handsome young man. He welcomed me with opened arms and was always sweet and kind to me. We would sit and talk about our love for sports, especially the Georgia Bulldogs. I will truly miss him. Rest in peace sweet Kyle for you will be reunited with your family one day. Watch down on your family. Help keep them strong through this sad and difficult time. You are at peace with God and you never have to worry about a thing in life again. We will miss you.
