“ Karen and I are saddened to hear of Joe's passing. Joe was a wonderful friend, colleague and mentor to me and a champion to all who lived in his community, whether it was Bel Air or Georgia. We have so many fond memories of him. I will always be indebted to him because he got me my interview with the Army. Take peace in knowing he was a generous and genuine man.

I have nothing but good memories involving Mr. Brooks such as deer hunting, all the neighborhood parties and cook outs. To me he was a good male role model for me growing up and he will not be forgotten! Deepest Sympathies! Bob Rigdon & Family

“ I consider myself fortunate for having had the opportunity to know Joe Brooks. He was a combination of calm, confidence, and class. The way he carried himself, was in so many ways, the definition of what I was raised to believe a man was supposed to be like. I always enjoyed sitting up at Joe's house on Muddy Run, drinking beers, and just chatting. He was a good story teller, and a good listener. I am grateful to have been able to spend that kind of time with such a great man.
