“ We have so many memories of the good times at the Music Barn with Charles and Mary Ann along with all the musicians Charles invited. But more than that, a good friend for many years. He was loved by so many and will be greatly missed. We are sorry we won't be there.

“ Having an opportunity to play at Durrough's Country Music Barn was one of the highlights of my music journey that started in Newnan. Charles and Mary Mary Ann were talented hosts and Terry is a terrific guitar player. I enjoyed many nights there and will greatly miss the fellowship.

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Durrrough family. I know Charles's first love was his family followed by his love for his savior and his music among many other things. He was a great mentor, storyteller, song writer, and performer. I know he was a great dad and husband to Mary Ann who he held so dear to his heart. We all know he could be a little brash but his heart was always in the right place. He will be missed by all. I personally have a lot to be thankful for his guidance, patients and inspiration to get up and perform at his music barn. I will be forever grateful. I loved Charles and he and Mary Ann made me feel like family. I will leave it here, as the accolades for Charles can go on and on!

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Charles’ passing. I met him (and Miss Mary Ann) long after I heard Papa talking about them and going to the Barn. He was the heart and soul of the Barn and I’m sure all who knew him will miss him. I’m sorry for your loss, Miss Mary Ann and family.

“ I was so surprised and saddened to read of Charles' passing. He was a genuinely a good soul. I knew him with his connection to the country music barn which he delighted in. My husband Bobby started participating in the music activities several months after our son passed away nine years ago and the music and the people at the band really were therapeutic for him. He kept going until the last few weeks before he passed away from pancreatic cancer. I am very thankful for the part Charles and Mary Ann played in bringing some sunshine into his life. My thoughts are with Mary Ann and Charles' family at this sad time. I am so very sorry for your (and our) loss. May he rest in eternal peace.

Always thought Charles was a good guy! The last few times I saw him was at the Farmer's Market. He would always invite me to come out to the Barn to listen to some good music, regretfully I never made it!... Prayers for all the family.
