

Joseph Ryan Doolittle

May 13, 1999 - July 4, 2008

Joseph Ryan "Joey" Doolittle, age 9, of Newnan, GA, beloved son of Tom & Kim Doolittle and brother to Tommy & Robby, passed away on July 4, 2008 after a long and heroic battle with cancer. Joey fought the disease from the age of 3 months and was an inspiration to many. Joey's family considered him a gift from God. In Joey's final days, even as the cancer spread throughout his body, Joey thinking of other sick children, founded a charitable organization called Joey's Toy Box in order to provide toys to other kids like Joey who battle cancer. Joey touched the lives of so many, and his legacy will live on through his good works.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, July 9, 2008 at Cornerstone United Methodist Church, 2956 Sharpsburg McCullum Rd. (HWY 154), Newnan, GA 30265. Joey's family will receive friends beginning at 10:00 a.m. with the funeral service to follow at 11:00 a.m. Burial will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Newnan. Rather than flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Joey's Toy Box foundation at 90F Glenda Trace Suite, 429 Newnan, GA 30265 or online at www.joeystoybox.net.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com

He is survived by his parents, Tom & Kim Doolittle; brothers, Tommy & Robby Doolittle; grandparents, John & Christine Doolittle, Deane & Ginger Taylor; as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins.
