“ My deepest and most sincere condolences go out to Joe's family. He never met a stranger and was always the brightest light of any room I ever had the opportunity of being in with him. He had a genuine care for others and made sure to show that as often as he could. My coffee is accompanied with his memory and when my kids fuss about their food touching, I can see and hear him saying the same things. I enjoyed watching him play the guitar the few times I got to and looked forward to him doing karaoke with me. I'll sing one loud enough just for you Joe. Rest easy sweet soul. Your memory will live on forever - truly an unforgettable person.

“ Joe...it's still unbelievable that I'll never get to hear your sarcastic remarks anymore or be a part of your witty humor. You were always so funny and always had a smile for everyone else. Even after you and I fought we always were okay and I am going to miss you so much. I love you Joe Joe ❤️❤️
