I will always remember too, your love of aviation even as a little boy, as you grew your love for air planes grew. Well young man your high above those clouds now on the arms of Jesus. “ Jodie was a dear, sweet, gentle man. When he was able to join us at our family gatherings for lunch, it made it all the more special. I know he is with the Lord, and he is pain and trouble-free. May God's grace comfort those who mourn him, and give them peace. Ginger, I know he appreciated all your tender care, and your efforts to ease his final days. Much love to the family.

“ I looked up to him, when I needed guidance. I walked in his shadow, when I knew not where to go. I sought knowledge from him, that would save my soul. I stood by him, when he pulled me up.

This is my older brother Joseph Lewis McKoon Jr.

To all that judge me under false profits, I judge not. I don't seek comfort for my pain, it's not what I want. I do not blame, point fingers, hold a grudge or seek revenge for spite. I am a better man for this. I miss you brother.
