Aunt Judy, Dennis, and Suzanne:

There are no words to express my deepest condolences to you and the entire Moore family. Each of you hold a special place in my heart and forever will. Having once carried this name, I know the love that bounds you all together. I know that your heart is broken at this time and there are no words that can even begin to take away the pain, but I hope you do know that Joey was loved by so many people while he was here with us. I will be praying for all of you as the days come and go and asking God to touch you with His mighty hand and preserve in your hearts and minds the memories of the good times that you shared with Joey. Dura, I was so sorry to learn of Joey's death. My husband Ron lost his son about 20 years ago and through him, I know somewhat the path you are walking. My prayers for you and the rest of your family are that soon your grief and tears will turn to smiles and laughter as you share stories of times you spent with Joey. “ Dura, I was so sorry to read of Joey's passing this morning. My heart breaks for you. Losing a child is the hardest thing one can do in this life, especially when the child dies so young. It is just out of the order of the ways things should be. Bobby and I both send prayers of comfort to you and the rest of your family. We will be out-of-town for a family gathering Sunday but know that we will be thinking of you as you go through this most difficult thing.

“ Share a memory... How do we just share one memory of Joey. Such a cute little guy running in and out of my yard to play with my children... football, baseball, chase, sharing bikes and balls and tales. He always had that little mischievous smile and we just new he was up to something. He stole our hearts not long after becoming neighbors to the precious Moore family. . He did leave his calling card once though... a rock right through our back glass of our car... He was quick to take the blame an all was well...Dura, we love you and we are hurting with you. Just know that now Joey is whole again and is probably displaying that sweet smile again. Just hope the Lord keeps His eye on all His glass windows Lol !!! Our prayers are with the whole family... God Bless !!!

“ In 1979, Joey drove up my driveway in his Red Maverick to begin his day of work with me and my husband at the time. He had a smile on his face and was excited about his day. He worked all day and many more days and months after that- and he always came in with a smile and left with a smile. Every time I have seen him in the years since, he always remembered me and had that sweet smile. Rest in peace sweet boy.
