“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Salvatore family and also share a comforting promise from the Bible. At Revelation 21:3-4 where Jehovah God will very soon wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ Joe was a good man, a generous and caring person. We partnered many times at the bridge tables at The Peachtree City Seniors Center. Although we didn't win most of the time, WE HAD FUN! Joe loved his bridge, and I will miss him. He was a special friend.

“ I will miss discussing and exchanging books with Joe. He was a virtual lending library.
