“ Aunt Jo always had a smile to share. Growing up it was always a pleasure to go to Aunt Jo s and Uncle Gradys house. I recall Uncle Grady sitting at the kitchen table after work while Aunt Jo cooked dinner for all of us kids.

We will miss her terribly . I know she is rejoicing in heaven .

We are sorry we can not attend her service. Jay can not be left alone since his stroke.

Please know you are in our prayers.

Randy, Susan (Bonnie) and Justin Morrell and Jay Wade

“ JoJo was like a second mother to me. She was a lot like my mother: funny, charming, full of life, compassion for others, always ready to lend a helping hand, and always had words to live by. It is my honor and privilege to have known such a wonderful and beautiful lady!!! Thank you for touching my life and making it better.

You have earned your wings JoJo, now fly with the rest of the angels...

*Forever in my heart
