I am so thankful that this video was provided. Guilford and I had a trip planned and could not attend the services. I will miss my chats with Miss Joyce. She didn't mind me coming in to visit with her even though I was hot and sweaty after taking care of her yard and property. I always knew when she was at home, because I could hear her TV blaring out in the yard. There were many times when I would look through the back door to see her sleeping in her favorite chair, and I decided not to wake her with a knock. There were so many times when Miss Joyce would say to me that she hoped this would be the night when the Lord would have His Angels come and take her in her sleep to her new home in Heaven, and her prayers were answered. You were very good to me, Miss Joyce. Thank you for helping me land on my feet by your sincere generosity. Rest in the loving arms of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and I will see you and Mr. Donald soon...in the Lord's time. I love you, Miss Joyce

“ Sincere condolences to the family. I had the privilege of working with Mrs. Amis for over ten years when we both worked for the Coweta Board of Education. I also had the opportunity to take one of her sign language classes. I always think of her when I attempt to sign or read sign language. May God continue to sustain you during your loss, but heaven's gain.

“ Judy and DJ,
Joyce and Donald are a big part of our Newnan precious memories . What began with their offer of swimming-pool refreshments, grew into a blessed friendship for our family. Her faith, love and perseverance set an example for us to follow as children of the King of kings.

*You are in our prayers,

“ So sorry to lose my Aunt Joyce! She was married to my mother's brother Donald, so she was a huge and wonderful part of my life from the beginning. She served her God, her church, family, and community until the end, and we will miss her. Judy, love and prayers to you, now and always.
