“ Louise was a kind and sweet lady who always tried to help others. She was the President of the Senior Friends of Newnan group from its inception years ago to April 2022 when she asked me to take the lead. I was honored to accept "her baby" and will try to continue the mission she started to make her proud. She touched many lives and will be sorely missed.

“ Louise was a lady that the lord provided every talent a person could have to be successful. Anyone that knew her, worked with her, would strive and be inspired to have the qualities and talents she possessed. God will be so happy to have her join the angels. “ Ken and Family, so sorry for your loss. Louise's VIP status sent her straight to heaven where she is organizing and including the mases in worthwhile projects. And GOD has restored her vison so she can play Bridge again. I've never known a sweeter or nicer person.

“ I have known Louise many, many years. She will be missed; she was a caring friend. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend the memorial service due to prior commitments. My prayers are with the entire family. Rita (and Larry in heaven) Wilson. We enjoyed having Ken and her at our home for various dinners.
