“ Judy was my stepmom but more like my true mother. She cared about me just like the rest of her kids. Shes been around me since I was born. I've never felt love from someone that isn't a blood relative.... but she was my blood too. She always wanted to help. Always wanted to make sure you were okay. I remember she used to always ask 'whats wrong?" I would get so aggravated. Nothing would be wrong, it was just a sound in my voice and if it wasn't happy, Judy wasn't happy. I would love to hear here ask me that now. I miss her very much and she will never leave my mind or my heart. I pray my daughter will remember her. I hate she wont grow up with such a caring woman "maw-maw". Im so sorry to Brandi, Kirstie, Chris, and my dad. I will be here for you no matter what.

“ To Brandi Cook and Family: Brandi, your mom, Judy, must have been a wonderful woman, I know because I have met you and see how you care for my baby boy, her love is reflected in you, your life and what you do and how you do it. I lost my mommy, three short months ago... I thought I would die too! There were days I could not even breathe.... My biggest consolation is that now she is with me all the time and more importantly caring and looking after my children, all the time - It was for me, and will be for you, the most challenging time of your life, May God be with you and your family in this very difficult time - my heart goes out to you all!

“ Dear Joe and Family You are in My thoughts and prayers. It has been many years since our days of being in school together. Judy was a sweet fun person who always had a smile for everyone. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith 2 Timothy 4:7

“ Dear Brandi and family, I am so lucky to have you, Brandi, for a friend. You just helped me through losing my dad, and now you have lost your mom ... the timing almost seems surreal. It is so sad and it breaks my heart to know how much you miss her. I am so sorry for you and everyone in your family -- everyone who knew your mom -- and I am sorry that I did not get a chance to meet her, too. I know I would have liked her very much. Thank you for taking me into your heart and helping me to heal when I lost my dad, and please know I am here for you as well. My love always, Nan

“ For those of you that did not know my mother, you really missed out. She was such a great person and friend to everyone she knew. My mom did everything she ever could to make everyone around her happy. She always knew how to make me smile and how to make me laugh, even if i didn't want to. She was my mom, but she was also one of my best friends. I could tell her anything and she would look at me no differently than she did before. She would back me up 100% on whatever i wanted to do. Everyone that knew my mom, i feel your pain. One of the greatest people i knew is gone and i can do nothing about it. I miss my mom more than you can imagine, and if she were here i would tell her that i love her the most the best and all the rest infinity times infinity..even though i am nowhere close to how many times she has told me first.

“ Brandi and family, I am so sorry for your loss, I can't even begin to imagine the hurt and pain you all are feeling. I am sure that you were a wonderful daughter because I see what a wonderful friend you are to everyone at school. Your mom knew that, and I pray that the wonderful memories you have will wrap around you and get you through this unbelievable time. Please accept my deepest sympathies and know that you all will be in my prayers.

“ I want everyone to know that I had the greatest mom in the world. She always put me and everyone else ahead of her and did all she could to help. The pain I am feeling can never be put into words. I have lost my mommy. I was blessed to have such an amazing woman for a mother and for that I am eternally grateful. I know I was a pain in her ass, but she put up with and loved me more than anyone and now she is gone. I miss my mommy and it really sucks to know her ring will never play on my phone again. It sucks that she will not come over to complain about me never answering the phone or calling her back. I just hope and pray my mom knew how much I loved her and how much she meant to me. I wasn't the best daughter, but I know she thought I was. The only peace I can find now is knowing that my gramps and grandma where waiting for her. I know they welcomed her and held her so close. I had 29 wonderful years with my mother, but wanted so many more. Nothing I can say will ever do her justice. She was an amazing mom and I will forever miss her and lover so much. I feel part of me is gone now. Mom.....I love you so much
