“ You are in my thoughts and prayers.I was Ms Julia's hospice nurse with VistaCare and she was always so soft spoken but she longed for the day to meet Woodrow.

“ Irene and Woodrow were like grandparents to me as a child. I even called them my adopted grandparents back then. My parents rented that small house next to theirs on Hal Jones Rd. Woodrow and I would fish, and I would shuck corn with Irene. She was a great lady and will be missed so much!

“ Julia & Woodrow had been close friends of our family since the early 60's. Julia presented to us one of our wedding showers in 1969. What a beautiful and gracious lady she was. Now, Julia and Woodrow can celebrate life together again. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.

“ we are very sad to here about the loss of such a true angel. I have known Mrs. Irene and Mr. Woodrow since the late 70's early 80's when me and my parents moved next door to her and she was like family and she will be truly missed.
