“ Dr. and Mrs. Jarrard, On a whim last night, I decided to look up childhood friends from Newnan. Imagine my shock and sadness to learn that Julie was gone, and so recently. I am so sorry. I called my mom (Anita), and we reminisced about a sweet girl with blond hair and a big smile. Please know that we are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. Stephanie Snell

“ Dr. & Mrs. Jarrard, I was dismayed to read of Julie's death. I know how close your children are held to your hearts. Life sends us down so many pathways, and it is often difficult to see just exactly what the Lord has in mind for a destination. Certainly, you would not have anticipated this. Please know that my thoughts and prayers will be with you and the rest of the family in the coming days. If I can possibly be of any service, please allow me to be.

“ Dear Bonnie and Truett, I have no words that will help with your loss but I feel a loss as well. Julie was my student that tried so hard to keep up with the rhythm and beat and worked so hard to accomplish her goals. I always took extra time to help her as I knew it meant so much to both of us. I always loved to help those that needed and loved the help. She was so special. My love and prayers to both of you. Lynn Mcrae Hurdle

“ Truett and Bonnie - I was so sad to hear about Julie's death. I am sure it must be very difficult for you and Trey right now. While its such a sad thing to happen, It has brought back great memories for me of our family trips to the lake and water skiing and hamburgers on the grill. Julie was such a sweet person. I really enjoyed seeing her again as an adult when Alice got married. Please know that i am keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers. take care, Mamie Farley
