“ My mom hired Dr. Worth at Lawson VA Hospital in Atlanta before I was born. Later on he was in private practice in Atlanta and operated on my sweet aunt Norma Andrew when she was just 49 and she survived with no cancer returning. She lived until age 81.5 and I credit Dr Jack with saving her life. My mom, aunt Norma and I went to Dr. Worth for years and he always spoke so highly of his wife. I'm sure they're reunited in heaven now and will be their loved one's guardian angels. God bless the entire Worth family. I lived in Coweta Co for 27 years but never knew they retired there until I read Dr. Worth's obituary,
