

Kapsok Gardner

November 8, 1938 - December 18, 2019

Kapsok “Ko” Gardner of Fairbanks Alaska, passed away Dec 18, 2019. Ko was born in Jinju, South Korea on Jan 8, 1933. Ko lived in Fairbanks, AK for the majority of her life and moved to the Atlanta area with her late husband, Gene Gardner. After Gene’s passing, she remained there, living with Kent and Ginger Gardner who had welcomed her into their family. Ko was well liked with many, many friends and enjoyed spending her time socializing with others. She kept herself busy most of the time, but always took the time to make those around her feel special. Anyone that had had the pleasure of knowing her could easily see how selfless she was. She is survived by her sons, Mark, Cole, Wayne, Kent, Gene and Jimmy as well as her sister Malsoon Jun and brother Ko Myung Seok. She will be missed.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting to have donations made to the Lewy Body Dementia Association. Donations can be made online at www.lbda.org.

A service to celebrate her life will be held on Sunday, December 22, 2019 at 4:00 pm in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel. Friends may visit the family from 3:30 pm until the service time.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.mckoon.com.

“ What a lovely photo of Ko. No small wonder that Gene fell in love with her. I was planning to come by for her January birthday even though she had difficulty remembering me. I see now she was in care with family.

I met Ko at a swimming pool facility and we became friends. She was such a gracious lady and opened her home to many of us, sharing some delicious Korean foods. Even when I was recovering from knee replacement, she was there with my favorite fried rolls, as only she could make so tasty.

She was very proud of her children and their accomplishments. God bless her and shine upon her family in this time.

Sincerely,
