

Karen Denise Redmon

November 1, 1955 - March 10, 2019

Kaye Redmon of Newnan, Ga., died at her home on Sunday, March 10.

Born in 1955 in Hattiesburg, Miss., Kaye received a Bachelor of Science in Microbiology in 1978 from the Mississippi University for Women, where she was a member of the swim team and the Reveler Social Club.

After moving to Virginia with her family in 1983, she spent many years working as a teacher and school librarian. In 1999 she moved to Newnan, where she enjoyed her work as a legal assistant at Glover & Davis, P.A.

Kaye was a talented pianist and singer and was a member of the Masterworks Chorale and the Central Baptist Church handbell choir. She also loved gardening and spending time with her many friends.

She is survived by her children, Allison Redmon of Denver, Colo., Anna Rooks of Birmingham, Ala., Julia Whitt of Concord, N.C., and Joseph Redmon of Seattle, Wash; and by her grandchildren Madeline, Eli and Ward Rooks, Oliver Whitt, and Lucy Garrett.

She is also survived by her brother Johnny Ward, her sister Robin Huff, and her brother Tracy Ward, and their families. She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Nettie Ward, and her brother David Ward.

Memorial gifts may be made to the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.mckoon.com.

“We are both so thankful for our friendship with Kaye for over 50 years. Her faith and testimony were an example to us all, especially as she dealt with a very difficult season with her health. She was always thinking of others and remained positive until the end with a strong trust in the God she loved. The legacy she left to all who knew her was a life of giving thanks, finding joy, being ever present, while encouraging others. We know she's singing in a heavenly choir with her beautiful voice!

“Kaye was a beautiful person, both inside and out, who was so courageous in this long battle with cancer. She was an inspiration to everyone who knew her and always lived a life that one could be proud of- with honesty, faith and undying love for her children, grandchildren, family and friends. I am so glad that she is no longer suffering and is now with her Savior. 🙏 Ida and Dale Lancaster

“Kaye was such an inspiration to all of us who knew her . She was so gracefully beautiful & and so versatility talented in any undertaking that she set her mind on to do . This is sad yet so joyous that Kaye now has peace while leaving such sweet memories for her family & friends to always cherish . She will be missed greatly .

“Kaye was my first true friend that was a female. We grew up thru the swim team together(Great Days). We were Team Captains for many years. We never dated just good friends. Although our friendship faded with the distance between us,the sprit, team work and special times we had will never fade. A hard worker, Kaye always had that winning sprit within her. She was a great person to have known.

Thanks Kaye.
