“ Dear Debra, So sorry to hear of the loss of your dear mother. She was truly a sweet and beautiful lady. I hope her last days were not so very bad. Debra, you were a sweet loving daughter to her. That should comfort you during this hard time of grief. Did not know you had lost Diane. What a hurtful time for both you and your mother. Glad to hear about all the grandchildren. What a joy! Couldn't let this time go by without telling you. We care and are thinking about you and your family. Remembering what a sweet family...my pleasure to have you as friends and neighbors. We have fond memories of all of you. Debra, take care, always know we care and love you. God bless and comfort you during your sad days. Always, "The Livingstons accross the street"
