

Katherine Lyle Freeman

August 31, 1924 - April 4, 2012

Katherine Lyle Freeman of Newnan departed this life on April 4, 2012 in a manner that was so indicative of her lifestyle. She was sitting in her favorite spot at home conversing with a friend and in an instant was in her eternal home. In Katherine's life, even when faced with health issues recently, every day was a good day. It was a philosophy that served her well for 87 years. Katherine was born August 31, 1924 in Coweta County and was the daughter of the late William Albert Lyle, Sr. and Ida Lou Stephens Lyle. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband Joseph Frank Freeman, Sr. in 1987. Following her retirement from International Playtex, she was a mainstay at Newnan Hospital (later Piedmont Newnan Hospital) as a volunteer and spent countless hours doing what she loved best – being with others and making herself useful in any way she could. She attended First Christian Church. Katherine is survived by her children; Cathy Phillips and her husband Danny of Jonesboro and Frank Freeman, Jr. of Newnan. She cherished her grandchildren Julie and Eddie Wood of McDonough, Kevin and Holly Phillips of Jonesboro, Amy and Steve Spicer of McDonough and Jason Freeman of Newnan. Her eight great grandchildren are Emily, Tyler, Clay, Grace, Faith, Joe, Eli and Kate. Also surviving are her sisters Sara Ann Rainey and Louise Ozmore of Newnan. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street where the family will receive friends on Friday evening between 5:00 PM and 8:00 PM. The funeral service will be on Saturday, April 7, 2012 at 11:00 AM in the McKoon Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Gary Parrish officiating. Interment will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Freeman family and also share a comforting promise from God's word at Revelation 21:3-4 which says:With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:Look the tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ I loved Ms Katherine. Occasionally on Wednesday's she would find her a ride and come to the Ambulatory Surgery Center (80 Jackson St, old Newnan Hospital) and she would sit there and have a peaceful yet fun conversation with you. She sure knew how to keep you laughing! She would brighten the door and yell out to me, " Well hello sweetie, I made it up here today." Last Wednesday was the last time she was here and she told me she would not be back the next Wednesday because it was so hard to get a ride (she had stopped driving). She told me to never stop driving if you gotta do it with one eye, nothing like your own vehicle. I will always remember Ms Katherine and the funny stories she would tell me. With Love,
