“ I met Ms. Kitty when my grandmother, Naomi, moved to Georgian Place several years ago. I only saw her personally a few times but my mom and grandmother spoke of her often and loved her. She was always in good spirits when I had the pleasure of seeing her and my mom spoke often of how upbeat and positive she always was. My grandmother passed just about a week before on November 27th, hopefully they are taking a walk (something they couldn't do here physically) together on the other side... <3

“ I had Ms Mosley as my teacher in the third grade when she went on maternity leave to have Meredith. I remember how excited she was about that. Then I had the good fortune to have her teach my sixth grade class. She was such an amazing teacher and so much that came later in my life was so clearly influenced by her: my love of reading and writing, my love of music, and the confidence it built to have a teacher who truly cared about me. I'm so sorry that she has passed, but I will always remember the joy that she brought into the world and be so appreciative that she was in my life even for all too short a time.

“ I went to school with Kitty in Montgomery. She was always vivacious and friendly and a devoted Auburn Tiger. I am sad to learn of her passing but I know that she is now fully healed, for that I am happy. Prayers for her friends and family.

“ Dear Family and Friends: Kitty and I had a ball in Montgomery when she worked thru the Armory Learning Arts Center. After I joined Facebook this year we talked over and over and then again when we made a trip to Georgia this summer. Joyful, Smart, and Spontaneous..a friend over time. I know she loved the church she was a part of. She let me know they filled an important role in her life and that she loved them. We send our thoughts..and Sympathy. “ Meredith, I will see you all at the service. Kitty and I have grown up and grown old together. I loved her so much. I was so sad when she moved away years ago, but she wanted to be near her family. May she Rest In Peace.
