“ Dear Susan and Peter... You were small when your parents moved from their home on Washington Avenue in Glen Head so I doubt if you would remember my family who lived next door. My parents, Elfrieda and Paul Zangas were close in age to Kathy and Bill's and they had a friendly relationship over several years. We are sorry to learn from the local paper of Kathy's recent death (as well as your Dad's) and shocked to hear that you lost Billy as well. We remember how much he loved to hit a baseball with his Dad in the backyard. We often wondered where your family moved and were surprised to hear that they didn't stay in the area, but lived for so long in Virginia. We send our condolences to you and hope that your parents had many happy years together after leaving Washington Avenue. Best...Penny Langan; parents Elfrieda and Paul Zangas (now ages 91 and 93); and my sister, Nancy Mohr.
