

Keith Wilson

January 27, 1974 - June 16, 2025

Keith Allen Wilson, 51, of Senoia, Georgia, passed away on June 16, 2025. Born on January 27, 1974, Keith was the beloved son of Sherin Grossi and Stepfather, Gerald Grossi of Holt, Michigan.

Keith was a man who lived life on his own terms-with heart, humor, and a deep love for his family. He is survived by his devoted wife and best friend of 32 years, Lisa Wilson, and their daughters, Cheyenne Wilson, Savannah Wilson, Gwendolin Taylor and future son-in-law's Mikey Tuggle and Caleb Kindig. He was a proud and playful grandfather (Pop) to Riley (his stinky nugget or Poppy & Gunther), who brought endless light to his life.

He is survived by his brother, Gary Crum, and sister-in-law, Alana Crum; his sisters, Angie Francis and Meghan Francis; his stepmother, Dawn Vanwyck; his grandparents, Bob and Janis Wilson; his mother-in-law, Linda Waterbury; and his sister-in-law, Linsie Hamill, along with her husband, Tommy Hamill.

Keith leaves behind a large and loving extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and dear friends. Among them, he shared an especially close connection with his Uncle Mike, whose presence and influence meant the world to him; his Aunt Cory, whose sweet and gentle spirit brought him comfort and warmth; and his cousin Andy, whose wonderfully strange sense of humor filled Keith's life with laughter and light.

Keith worked as a superintendent at WEBMyers Construction in Atlanta, GA, where his dedication and craftsmanship earned him the respect of everyone around him. He had a real gift for fixing things-on the job and off. Whether it was a car, plumbing, electrical work, or just something that needed a little TLC, Keith could handle it. He took pride in doing things right and had a knack for making the tough stuff look easy.

Keith had a passion for the outdoors and could often be found hunting, fishing, or cracking a joke-usually at just the right (or wrong) moment. He especially loved being a "pain in the ass" to his daughters, always in fun, always out of love. His sense of humor was sharp, his heart even sharper.

He shared a special bond with his dogs-Rebel, Remington, and Nova-his loyal companions on countless adventures and quiet days alike.

Keith's memory will live on in the stories he told, the laughter he sparked, and the family (two- and four-legged) he loved fiercely and unapologetically.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, June 28, 2025, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory, 38 Jackson St., Newnan, GA, with a memorial service to follow at 4:00 p.m.
