

Kenneth Frederick Lewton

February 18, 1958 - February 12, 2024

Kenneth F. Lewton Feb 18, 1958-Feb 12, 2024 of Sharpsburg, GA arrived at the pearly gates of Heaven met by his lord and savior. Ken was born in Pittsburgh, PA Feb 18, 1958 to Donald and Lillian Lewton.

Ken was a beloved husband to Carlene, and a wonderful father to Kimberly, Valerie, Victoria, and Brandon. And can't forget the best dog dad to Abbie. He also had 5 grandchildren and 1 great grandson.

Ken was in the automotive industry most of his life but most recently he was employed by Sunbelt Rentals in Newnan. He could fix anything, it didn't matter what it was-he could fix it. He had a sign that said "If Dad can't fix it, we're all screwed" Ken was a die hard Steelers fan always watching every game. He also loved Nascar, working on his 62 Chevy Nova, but most of all he loved traveling and riding his motorcycle with the love of his life and soulmate Carlene. Other than spending time and creating countless memories with his beloved wife, Ken's other most joyous times in life were during moments he could spend with his girls and grandkids. Ken cherished every minute that he could be with all of them. Adam, his oldest grandson who has special needs, captured his heart from the first time he held him. The two of them would go fishing anytime they were together.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents Donald and Lillian Lewton and his brother Donald Lewton Jr.
