

Kevin Spurlin Eliander

October 10, 1947 - May 26, 2009

Kevin Spurlin Eliander, 61, of Newnan died on Tuesday May 26, 2009. No services are planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ In the years that I knew Kevin in the Coweta Writers Group and in acting in my plays for the Grantville Playmakers, I saw Kevin as someone both as a writer and actor who had talent. I am truly saddened over his loss at such a young age, and he will truly be missed. David Wilson

---

David Wilson - June 01, 2009 at 10:37 PM

MK

“ My memories of Kevin he worked at the greyhound bus station when it existed in newnan he made transportation appointments for medicaid patients he had a very pleasant phone voice he was a poet in his own right he was in many civic groups in newnan kevin and i were in toastmasters speech club together he was a officer in that he did his job well he was a college graduate he had degrees in things.he was a member of several churches in the newnan area also.kevin was a very gentle soul and a very loveing husband in our short marriage kevin and i were good friends 12 years before we married in 2000.kevins late father passed 2 weeks after we got married in October of 2000.kevin and i got to do some traveling together we went to Native American powwows together we traveled to Flordia,and Alabama.Kevin also worked at burger king in newnan he always greeted coustomers in a very friendly way he went out of his way to do the best job he could despite his disability.kevin will be missed he had many good friends in newnan in the many civic groups he was a member of.i will miss him most of all i was his wife.

---

Mary Ann Kelley - May 31, 2009 at 07:05 AM

LB

“ We only met Kevin on a couple of occasions. We knew him mostly through his wife, Mary Ann. He was a gentle man who marched to his own drummer. He met Jesus face-to-face this week.

---

Lynn & Nancy Bradley - May 30, 2009 at 02:26 PM

MK

“ Rest in peace Kevin I love you and miss you greatly i never stopped loveing you!You will be greatly missed also.I hope God has taken you to his loveing arms and you are reunited with your loved ones that went before you.I love you kevin and miss you so much.i will never forget you. Your loveing former wife Mary Ann Kelley

---

Mary Ann Kelley - May 29, 2009 at 05:09 PM

FS

“ Here is a poem Kevin wrote, which is very appropriate for this time of year, as summer is approaching. An Ode To Summer By Kevin Eliander The Summer Solstist brings out the mostest June 21, full moon, Mars in the right position, by the pool who is the hostess? Hot dogs and barbique, or fishing, is one left to toast us? Graduation done, school's out, where to go for the roast us? A toast than, is in order, to the taste and fun of summer, play it safe, keep God in the activities so the hot days won't be a bummer drive safely with insurance, no DUI's, you won't get any dummer. We come to the Seventh inning stretch; than, another July 4, As we grow older sometimes we listen to the beat of a different drummer But the final word here is, just enjoy your summer. the fish will bite, they are no new comer. *** ** Transcribed by me, Forrest Schultz, from the typed manuscript Kevin gave me. I did not correct any errors -- this is exactly how he worded it and punctuated it. It would spoil the poem to stick in "sic", so I left it as is. All I wish to say about it is that this poem is definitely vintage Kevin!! He has written many others in this style but unfortunately I have misplaced them or I would reproduce them here. Sincerely, Forrest Schultz May 28, 2009

---

Forrest Schultz - May 28, 2009 at 07:24 PM