“ I am the mother of a baby in the NICU where Landon was. My heart goes out to you, and I am so sorry. You are not alone in your grief. I cried with you and I prayed for you Wednesday. I wanted to speak to you all but could not, fear had struck me. You will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. I know you have wonderful family support, lean on them. I don't know what I would do without mine. Remember that god will not give us more than we can handle. God bless you. Angela

“ Death is never easy and when a life so young is lost, the pain is even greater. I pray that the God of all comfort will be with you. God promises at John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will come out to a resurrection into a peaceful earth, with no sickness, pain or sorrow. (Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:4) During this time you both will be able to welcome back your son back to life and hold him again. I hope this will bring you peace and comfort.

“ I like so many others were praying for this precious little angel to gain the strength necessary for surgery and the challenges ahead....it is so hard for us to understand, but God's plan has left us with another empty space in our hearts...all my thoughts and prayers to you and your families...
