“ Dear Family and Gary, my heart is so sadden in Larry's passing. He was always smiling. All the way back to "Greeneville Jr. High" Larry (and Gary) had smiles on their faces all the time. Being identical twins those two loved to play tricks on others who couldn't tell them apart, which was most people in the school including the teachers. When I saw Larry a couple of years ago, he hadn't changed at all. He looked just like he did in school, with that big smile that brightened the whole world. The emptiness you feel with Larry's loss can be filled with the wonderful memories of a good man and the good times you shared. Allow God's love to fill your heart with peace and comfort you during this time.

“ have picked up the paper this morning to find the passing of a Larry Pack. I went to grade school with brothers Larry and Gary Pack. I am very sorry to hear of Larry's passing. I remember those two darling boys very fondly. It has been many years since I have seen or heard of them. I want the family to know how sorry I am to read of this tragedy, but please know, just to see the names Gary and Larry Pack filled me with fond memories and happiness. He was a doll. My thoughts are with you. And my very best to Gary and all of you. Most Sincerely, Park Overall

“ I am extremely saddened to hear about Larry's passing. I had fortune of working with him at Philips briefly before I left. Even before I worked with him, I knew him as the man who was always smiling. Larry spoke to everyone, no matter if he knew them or not. When I finally got to meet him, I knew why Dan Starnes always spoke so highly of him. Mrs. Pack, I never got to meet you, but Larry spoke of the fun you all have shared. He was a great man with a big heart and the more I got to know him, I described him as a big Teddy Bear. I only wish I had a father like him. As one person stated in an earlier post, Larry is the epitome of a Southern Gentleman. I am just happy I had the experience of working with him. His loud laugh made me laugh. He was a great person and will be missed by everyone who had the fortune of meeting him. May God bless you, Mrs. Pack, and your family during this difficult time. My heart is with you and yours.
