“ Larry and his wife were very generous people. They showed that when our family was in need of a place to stay during the onslaught of Hurricane Frances in 2004. My husband, myself, my father and our 6 week old granddaughter were given refuge. We had to stay several days as the hurricane would not leave the coast of Florida. They would not accept any compensation for our stay and treated us just like family while there. It is with a sad heart that the ones who knew him have to say goodbye.
