“ *I will always remember Laurie for his stories of missionary work and his wonderful handshake. Walking into the chapel with a smile, and handshake and his scriptures showed how much he loved the gospel and other people. We will miss meeting him in the chapel on Sundays, now. “ Nancy and I are saddened to hear of Brother Nielsen’s passing. You could always count on a big smile a firm handshake and a warm embrace when we would meet. Brother Nielsen had a positive attitude of life and a great love of the Gospel that would uplift those he would meet. I loved him and always enjoyed our time, together. A part of him will remain with me until we meet again.

Nancy and I send our deepest condolences to Laura and family. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
