

Lenore Schrowang

June 13, 1929 - February 13, 2022

Lenore J. Schrowang, 93, passed away Sunday, February 13, 2022 at her home in Newnan. She was born on June 13, 1929 to Charles Rees, Sr. and Helen Ciencinka Rees in Chicago Heights, Illinois. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her two younger brothers.

Lenore graduated from St Joseph Nursing School in 1950. She worked as a private nurse until moving to California with her husband, Joe. She continued her nursing career at PIH in Whittier as Head Nurse of Nursery/NIC unit and then later at Hoag Hospital in Newport Beach.

When she and Joe moved to Newnan in the late 90's, she participated in several ministries at St. George Parish which included assisting Sr. Bridget Ann with their Pre-school. She also mentored several students in the Coweta County Public School System.

She is survived by her daughter, grandson, granddaughter, and great-granddaughter.

The funeral Mass is Thursday, February 24th, 11:00am at St. George Catholic Church with Father Randy Mattox officiating.

“ Lenore was the director the St. George Catholic Preschool when I taught there. I enjoyed working with her. She truly had the interest of the children in mind. The children were always happy to see her when she walked into a classroom. There was a certain warmth in her eyes (and heart) for them and her teachers. I was blessed to know her. Condolences to her family.

“ Lenore was a beautiful Godly woman. She taught us so much about our walk with Christ. Her faith was an inspiration to so many people that knew her. We will miss Lenore but know she is in heaven dancing with joy with her husband and special friend Sister Bridget. Our deepest sympathies to the family.

I was a Pre-school teacher for a few years when Lenore was the Director. She had a genuine love for the children and always had their best interests in mind. She loved God and all of us teachers. Condolences to Paula and Sarah and the rest of the family.

“ Lenore was a beautiful woman, totally devoted to God with such a special place in her heart for the unborn. Lenore was a good friend with my deceased husband, they shared many long conversations together. So glad she is now with God & her wonderful husband Joe. Deepest sympathies to the family on your loss. Maria Corbett
