

Lewis Edward Scott

October 24, 1938 - November 28, 2023

Lewis Edward Scott, age 85, passed away peacefully at his home in Newnan on November 28, 2023. He was born on October 24, 1938, in Mississippi.

Lewis lived most of his life in Arkansas growing up. He attended the University of Arkansas where he graduated with a bachelor's degree. He is known as being an avid outdoorsman, loving to hunt and fish. He also was a big fan of the purple Martin bird when they migrated from South America. After moving to Newnan, he could be seen driving his tractor or planting a garden. He also took time to go pheasant hunting with his wife in Kansas.

The family will celebrate Lewis' life privately. But those who wish to leave a condolence to the family may do so online at www.mckoon.com.

Lewis is survived by his wife of 51 years, Edith Peavey Scott; brother Joe Scott of North Little Rock, AR; sisters Sarah Logan of Mount Ida, AR and Ruth Ann Brooks of Benton, AR; sister-in-law Alice James; and nephew Craig James.

“ So sorry to learn of Lew's passing. I had sent him an email 10 days ago and was concerned when I didn't get a response. Lew was a good friend and co-worker. We loved to talk about the outdoors and shared many hunting and fishing stories. My thoughts and prayers are with Lew and Edie and family. RIP Lew.

“ So sorry to learn of Lew's passing. We both loved dogs and would talk about them. Lew would show me pictures of Prince and Hooper and the others. We'd laugh about their antics and talk about their championship wins. I hope Lew and his beloved dogs are together again. Barbara Joe White
