“ Emory, Glenda, Elaine and Darlene, May you find peace and comfort in knowing that Ms. Lillian has now found that eternal peace. You know that it was a joyous reunion with Mr. Emory and Oscar. She was a sweet, sweet lady with an infectious smile and sparkling eyes. I have many fond memories of growing up with all of you during the summers of our childhood and how she always had room for one more at her table. Love to all of you. Patsy (she never called me Pat)
