“ Aunt Linda truly was “sweeter than southern sweet tea”. Some years back I called Aunt Linda up & we reminisced about past vacations & visits. I told her that I was missing the family there and being in Georgia. I told her that I wanted to send a disposable camera to her so that she could take pictures for me of Haralson, since it had grown so much, and the family that we were missing too. She said she would & I said, “Aunt Linda, you’re sweeter than southern sweet tea!” She laughed her sweet laugh & said “Well thank you Sweetie!” This picture of her, Ainsley, & Uncle Alton is the only one she was in lol.

Aunt Linda was so kind, caring, compassionate, gentle, sweet, loving, & just a God given blessing. I know she’s receiving the promise given of eternal life with Jesus. Our thoughts & prayers are with her beautiful, sweet family as they go through this time. We love you all.

I love you so much Aunt Linda. By the way, thank you you showing Momma how to make biscuits the way you, Aunt Jean, Aunt Dottie, & Grandma Pate did. The Texas way just isn’t the same.

Love always, Shelley Pate Lee
