“ I have heard...just through my siblings that she put dirt in uncles Charles gas tank to his mustang...they ALL got in trouble for it. I tried to call her on Monday and did not know that she was already bad. But at least I got to see her at uncle Charles funeral. Even though it was a sad time...I still got her cracking up laughing. I wished that knew earlier that she was that sick. I hope that she wasn't in any pain...and I know that she was loved by everyone she knew. Rest I. Peace my sweet cousin..we all will see you soon.
Love you

“ My sweet friend since 1985, when we attended Carroll Tech. She was a whizz on the mammoth size computer that would shake the entire building when it revved up for our class. Can still hear her laugh, when I would become overwhelmed when trying to write a program. She would brush it off and tell me, “don’t worry about it, I’ll explain it when we get to the Lazy Donkey.” We ate Mexican at the Lazy Donkey everyday for a year. I am still amazed that with as much as we cut up, we managed to learn anything. We were always getting those looks from Ms. Boyer for laughing in class. Jo was and is still my friend, even though we lost contact for a few years, we just picked right back up where we had left off. Saw her at the hospital the day they put in the port. She told me she would call me. I never received that call, but that’s okay. I am so glad she doesn’t have to suffer anymore and I am sure that Jo will be laughing with the angels. Prayers for peace and comfort for her family. Thanks to sweet Autumn for taking the time to keep me informed.
