“ Lisa...Butter...A lifetime of memories with you and I'll never forget..I will cherish everyone if them forever in my heart. You loved everybody unconditional no matter what and you were there for me more times that I can Im an count. You went through some terrible health problems a good while back and i had no idea until it was over and I'm so sorry. You were one of a kind, got 2 of the sweetest boys that loves you just as you live them and will be missed by everyone that knew you. Rest in peace Lisa..God needed you with him to take all your suffering away..we needed you here because you cant be replaced. I love you more than you'll ever know and I will see you again someday. 😭💔...Dee Cook
