

Lizanna Winow Vickery

October 2, 1924 - August 25, 2023

Lizanna Winow Paramore Vickery passed away on August 25, 2023. She was born to John Franklin and Clara Smith Paramore on October 2, 1924, in Worth County, Georgia. Her mother died in 1925, and her father later married Ethel Shiver Privette, who was the only mother Winow ever knew.

After graduating from high school in Turner County, Georgia (where she played on the girls' basketball team), she married William Hubert Brown. He entered the military and served in Europe during World War II. He completed his service, and the couple moved to Newnan, Georgia, where he owned a construction company. They had three children.

Her first marriage ended, and she later married Thomas H. Vickery, Jr., who worked as a Newnan City police officer for many years, she went back to school and became an LPN. She worked at Newnan Hospital for almost thirty years. She often recalled fondly her good times with the doctors, nurses, and other co-workers there, her "2-A" family.

After her retirement, with Tom's health failing, they moved to Griffin, Georgia to be near one of their sons. She attended Griffin First United Methodist Church, and she served as president of her Sunday school class for several years. She made many unforgettable, close friends in Griffin, and until about the time she turned 94 years old, she served as the designated driver for their luncheons, visiting trips, and going to church.

Due to some physical impairments, Winow moved back to Newnan in 2020 to live with her son and daughter-in-law. When able, she attended St. Barnabas Anglican Church, where she was admired and loved by the whole parish. Her health continued to decline, necessitating her moving to residential care in February of this year.

Winow is predeceased by her husband, five siblings, and three stepchildren. She is survived by her children, Gary William Brown and his wife, Carla; John Scott Brown and his wife, Brenda; Gregory Hubert Brown and his wife, Barbara; and Samuel Clark Vickery and his wife, Janet. In addition, she is survived by one stepson, Tommy Vickery, step-in-laws, Gina Vickery and Stan Jones, and by several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

The family extends heartfelt gratitude to Ann Cowan and her staff at Corinth Road Personal Care Home and to the nurses and staff at Sacred Journey Hospice for their tireless, compassionate care of Winow during her final journey.

A graveside service will be held Thursday, September 14, 2023 at 11:00 at Oak Hill Cemetery.

“ Wino was my mother in law she lived with us until she broke her hip. She was a very warm and loving person. She told me many stories regarding Clark and we would laugh together. I will miss you Wino and the times we shared. Janet Vickery.

“ I met Winow and Tom Vickery in 2007 when I became Tom’s hospice RN. I continued my care for Tom until his death on February 1, 2010. I feel very blessed to have known them both during that time and a privilege to provide care for Tom as my patient, and Winow as his wife. Winow and I kept in touch through phone calls after Tom’s death until recent years when I lost contact with her. Fortunately, I recently met Gary during a trip to Kroger’s. I am so grateful for that day as Gary explained what had happened to his Mom during recent years. We exchanged cell numbers and was able to visit Winow at Corinth Resident Care just about a month before her passing. Although chair bound and not able to remember me, Winow sounded just as I remembered her. Her smile and cheerful disposition hadn’t changed. I’m so grateful that I was blessed with seeing her one more time. Winow and Tom Will continue to hold a special place in my heart. My thoughts and prayers to Winow and her family.

“ I went to LPN school with Winow and she became our class mother, hosting many suppers at her and Tom's house in town and their cabin on Greenwood Lake. She was a very nice lady and a great nurse and friend to all in our class.
