Our deepest sympathy for the loss of our great, great nephew we fell in Love with him the first time we laid eyes on Locklann. All his Birthday parties we attended we loved him more. You will always hold a special place in our heart. Know you are well now with Jesus playing in his garden. Praying for Cody and Brenna and Lincoln.

“ Lochlann, sweetheart, I didn't get to meet you, but I heard all about you. Your Grandma Jacque is my sister, and she told me that you were the sweetest most adorable baby she'd ever seen. When you get to heaven, you'll have lots and LOTS of family and friends to take care of you. For starters, don't pull Great Grandpa Frank's finger! It's a trick! And your Great Grandma Annette will sing you lullabies! I won't get started on your Great aunts on your Grandma's side! Just know that you're in good hands and will always be loved. I hope to meet you, if I'm lucky. I'm your Great Aunt Macker (Mary), the old hippy in the family. I'll bring the flowers for your hair. Until we meet, sleep tight.
