“ Condolences, Michael. Just saw your mom passed last year. She was a peach. Your dad and I played tennis regularly in Denver with Lou Webb (d. Christmas before your mom), and John Lusk. Bunch of old insurance guys. Visited in Ft Worth when your folks lived across from tennis courts at TCU. I was watching Seton Hall today in their basketball tournament loss and thinking about your dad. (Died too soon.) They sure thought the world of you for good reason. Very proud of you. Wishing you good memories. Sincere best wishes. Jim Rose, retired in Spokane, WA.
