

Louise Stapleton Clymer

November 8, 1939 - September 5, 2015

Louise Stapleton Jones Clymer of Newnan died at her residence on September 5th, 2015 at the age of 75.

Louise was born November 8, 1939 in Newnan Georgia, the eldest child of the late Louise Stapleton Jones and Rev. Duke Cole Jones. Louise was a wonderful, inspiring, supportive and loving mother. She was a very gifted artist with a love for architecture, painting and drawing and passed this on to her children. Louise was a passionate and dedicated researcher and documenter of family history and genealogy, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), and an avid gardener and lover of nature. She had a tender and compassionate heart for animals, rescuing and caring for them all her life. Louise's two beloved dogs and cat (Daphne, Loxley and Baby) will need a loving new home.

Louise was preceded in death by her sister Janet Faye Jones McCarthy. She is survived by her children Glenn Alan Purcell of New York, NY, Christine Purcell d'Ascoli of New York, NY, Ann Wills Marshall of Amherst, Mass., and grandchildren Sean Hanke and Marshall Hanke of Amherst, Mass.

Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com

It was Louise's expressed wish that there be no funeral or graveside service. The visitation will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 12 at McKoon Funeral Home. A simple interment at Forest Lawn Memorial Park on Roscoe Road will be Sunday, September 13, 2015, at 4 o'clock. It is the request of her children that flowers be omitted and that contributions be made in Louise's memory by those desiring to the Newnan-Coweta Humane Society, P.O. Box 785, Newnan, GA 30264.

“ Although we were just friends of Louise Clymer she was just like our family. Louise was such a gentle and kind person. Our prayers go out to Glenn, Chrissy, Anne and all her family as she is surely going to be missed in so many, many ways. It is still hard to believe and it was such a shock to us, this happened so suddenly. Our hearts are saddened....
