

Love Elizabeth Cutchshaw

November 21, 1922 - May 23, 2013

Love (Elizabeth) Wilson Cutchshaw

Love Cutchshaw of Loganville, Georgia died Thursday, May 23, 2013, following a brief illness. She was 90.

She was born on November 21, 1922, in Pensacola, Florida to Lura Maud Toliver Wilson and Leonard Suttle Wilson. She grew up in Newnan, Georgia with her four siblings during the Great Depression.

Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by her sister, Virginia Holbrook, her brother, Leonard Wilson, Jr., husband, Robert Charles Cutchshaw, son, Robert Charles Cutchshaw, Jr., son-in-law, Mike Abbeglen, and granddaughter, Beth Abbeglen.

After graduating from high school at age 16, she attended Georgia State College for Women where she received her teaching certificate. She began her teaching career in a one room school house, and later worked as a Title One teacher for the Decatur City School System. She is noted for her generosity, kindness, and patience to the children she taught.

Love was a talented singer, an avid reader, and a gifted writer. Memories of her beautiful alto voice, along with her stories and poetry, are lasting treasures for her family and friends.

She raised her five children in Decatur, Georgia, and was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She was devoted to her faith, and will be remembered for her sweet and powerful testimony, and shining example.

She held many callings through the years, but was especially fond of performing genealogical work. Well before the age of computers, she spent countless hours traveling to Virginia and North Carolina to gather historical information for her research. These journeys brought her joy, and led her to publish three family genealogies. She served as the president of the Newnan Genealogical Society for a period of time, and helped many people track their own ancestry.

Survivors include her siblings, Carolyn Wilson Burson and Walter Scott and Billie Zane Wilson; children, Sherry and Will Thomas of Blackfoot, ID, Susan Abegglen of Idaho Falls, ID, Melissa and Steve Mills of Loganville, GA, and Adrian and Abigail Cutchshaw of Cleveland, GA; 20 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren, and 2 great-great grandchildren.

“ She proved that God does answer prayers. Loved visiting with her and hearing her testimonies in church. "Are there biscuits in heaven?" will forever stay with me. A special lady is now with our Heavenly Father and her family there.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Love's passing. She will always have a special part in my heart. My daughters and I will miss her. My 2 daughters used to clean her house years ago (for awhile) when she lived in Peachtree City before they went off to college. On occasion it was a pleasure to drive Love around to her appointments and take her to lunch. I loved visiting with her and being her Visiting Teacher and her friend, and hearing stories about her life, her family, the books she was working on, and hear her wonderful testimony in Church. Twice, a car full of us came up to her place in Loganville and visited with her. They will be great memories. She will be missed. I hope you all will find comfort in the days ahead and may God bless your family always.

“ The Gunn and Rix family have you in our thoughts and prayers at this time of loss. Sister Cutshaw was a lovely woman and will be missed. Please know that we are here for you and wish you God's blessings of comfort and peace. I had hoped to attend the service, but will not be able to be there in person. However, I will be there in heart and spirit. May the Lord bless you and keep you.
