“ Miss Lucile was a true blessing to anyone who had the pleasure of meeting her. I had the pleasure of being her hairdresser from the time she moved to Newnan until I retired. She was always such a joy to spend time with. She always had a smile on her face and concern in her heart for everyone she encountered. Our prayers are that the wonderful memories she created will forever put a smile on your face. Prayers for God's comfort to her family.

“ I had the pleasure and privilege of taking care of Ms Lucille at Corinth Road Personal Care Home. I can only imagine what a wonderful woman she was in her younger years based on how funny & caring she was when I first met her. I take care of all of our residents as if they were my own family but I can honestly say she & Debbie will always have a SPECIAL place in my heart. Our residents would often comment on what a wonderful daughter Debbie is & her dedication to her mother. That is a direct result of what a wonderful mother Ms Lucille was to have raised such a wonderful woman. God blessed this world with her & now she is blessed to be with Him & all those who have gone before her. Debbie, you & your family are in my prayers. God bless you all
