“ Dear Jimbo and family: I am so sorry to read of the passing of your mom. Although I did not ever meet her I know that you had always spoken so fondly of her and that you will miss her so much. One never gets over the loss of their mother. Take care of yourself and the family, Jimbo. I know that you and your daughter will help support each other during this tragic time.

“ I'll never forget what adorable Aunt Lucy said as soon as her nephew Bill brought me over to meet her: "Well, WHEN are ya'll gonna get married"? I knew I'd love her forever. She also took me to my first Broadway show (Les Miserables - my favorite) AND out to dinner at The Rainbow Room, which is no more, or was located at Twin Towers. What a zest for life she had! I'm sure everybody in Heaven got even happier when she arrived. We will miss her greatly but know that we will see her again one day.
