“ We wish to express our sincere feelings for the family of Lynda Adcock. We come to know Lynda as a sweet Christian lady while we attended East Newnan Baptist church. We have no doubt that she loved her family and friends ,but she wouldn't come back to this earth now that she has gained eternal life with Christ Jesus the King Of Kings and the Lord of Lords.

“ We are so sad that our sweet friend has left us here on earth. We have been praying daily that God would spare her from her accident and return her to good health. But, God chose to return her to her beloved Jim and give her perfect health and we rejoice in his decision. Our prayers are with the children at this sad time and may the sweet memories you have of your sweet mom flood your hearts and mines.. We are old friends from Harp's Crossing Baptist and East Newnan Baptist and Linda and Jim will always be special folks to us.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time and although I know it's hard you can rejoice in the fact that she is no longer suffering and is at home with Jesus, your dad and some very special people that loved her so much that went home before her including my mom and dad! We love you all so much please let us know if we can do anything for you at all.*

“ My heart simply aches at the thought of not singing with Lynda again on this side of heaven. Elizabeth and I so enjoyed her humor and the good times we shared in choir together. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers as you journey through the coming days. We were blessed to have known Lynda and look forward to seeing her again some day.
