“ *Ed, Heather and family,
Lynn was a very special person. Her love for her family showed every single day in everything she did. I hope you can all find peace in her memory and the knowledge that she is now able to watch over you from heaven. I wish I could be there in person today, but please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad and difficult time.*

“ Ed, You and your entire family are in our prayers. Lynn was such a wonderful person, a great example of love and devotion for all of us. We have been praying for ya'll through this entire journey. I know she felt loved and appreciated. The facebook posts helped so many of us to stay in touch. I cannot imagine the pain you are in now. I do trust the Lord to be with you in this difficult and challenging time. Lynn was so precious. Someone who knew Lynn but had never met you asked me if I knew you. I told her that if you tried to come up with someone as kind good, wonderful as Lynn then it would have to be Ed. We will continue to pray for you and all the family in the days ahead. My mother wishes she could be there tomorrow but she is home bound. Jack Maguire

EdDavidson, Heather and Justin and families, Rusty and Nancy Hightower and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Lynn will truly be missed. She was so special to me. May you find comfort in the fact that she is no longer in pain. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I wanted to see her so bad before she passed but my MS would not allow me to ride that far. Hope you all understand. I also wanted to come to the service so bad but just cannot. Praying for comfort for each of you. love, anna
