“ Dear W. L., David, Amie, LeAnn and Family,
We had to wait a few days to get over the shock to write this. It is hard to believe that Lynn is gone from this world, that we can't see and talk to her any more. She is with the Good Lord now and will not suffer any more. Mildred has known Lynn all her life and I have known her since I was fifteen. Some of the road has been rocky and the rest has been smooth. God only knows how we will live our lives. Lynn was a good person and would help when you needed it. We are sorry we couldn't come to the visitation, as you know, Mildred is in Asley Park for Rehab. She was in the hospital for one and one half weeks before coming here. She has been here for 4 weeks and we hope to go home on Saturday of this week. She will have home health coming next week.
May the Good Lord give you peace, love and contentment during this difficult time.
God loves you and we do too,
Mildred and Don (Aunt and Uncle)

“ LeeAnn and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I taught VBS with Lynn for 2-3 years. After the first year, I'd tell them that I would only teach it if I could work with her. I was very sad when she stopped helping. I hadn't seen her in several years. But I loved the person she was!

“ WL , Amy and LeeAnn, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember how much fun we had together on Boone Drive. Lynn loves ya'll so much, and I admired her because she was always herself , nothing put on about her. Heaven is a better place.

WL, Amy and LeeAnn, I was so sorry to learn of Lynn's passing. She was one heck of a woman and I admired her immensely! I purchased almost all of my Precious Moments collection from her when she had the Hallmark Shop...quite a salesman she was! Amy, I especially want to send hugs to you. Haven't seen you in a number of years, but every time I saw Lynn I asked about you and your beautiful family. Ask her about her three grands and this big smile would instantly appear on her face and she'd launch into the latest stories about them. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Had been praying for Lynn's recovery, but I guess God had other plans for her. I hadn't seen Lynn in a very long time, but remember our shared laughter while imprinting stacks of Christmas cards for Eve's Hallmark. I know she'll be missed physically by family & friends, but hope memories will keep Lynn alive in your hearts.
