

Madeline Denise Allen

September 26, 1943 - December 16, 2008

Madeline "Denise" Allen, 65, died peacefully Tuesday, December 16, 2008 at her home in Newnan. She was born September 26, 1943 in Salt Lake City, UT to the late James & Madeline Conner Ong.

Denise was an avid reader and shared her passion for books working in libraries, most recently at the Georgia Library for Assessible Services. She also served at Newnan High School and California Polytechnical Institute. Throughout her life Denise served in her community. She was a Girl Scout Leader for two generations of girls sharing her love of nature and outdoor living skills. She also enjoyed her calling sharing these same skills as the President of the Young Women's Program at her church, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Denise loved her role in her family the most. She enjoyed folk storytelling festivals with her husband, theater events with her daughters, and was often seen taking her local grandchildren to the libraries storyhour or reciting folk stories for her out-of-town grandchildren's classes when she visited.

The service is Saturday, December 20, 2008 at 4:00 pm graveside in Oak Hill Cemetery. The family requests that flowers be omitted and contributions made to the Community Welcome House, P.O. Box 1631, Newnan, GA 30264.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com

“ Dear Allen Family--I was saddened to hear of Denise's death. I thought she would "beat the odds" forever. She was always so upbeat and fun to be around. She has wonderful daughters to carry on her tradition of service and passion for life. Today I made a contribution to the Toys for Tots Literacy Campaign in her memory. David and I are mindful of all of you during this difficult time. Sarah M. Ingram
