“ Roger, Teresa, Angie and Kim, I just found out about your mom and I am so sorry or I would have acknowledged sooner and would have been with you. You know I love your family and your mom! It is such fate that your mom and mine went to be with the Lord so close together. You know they are talking about old times and us kids. I know how heavy your hearts are because I am here with you. The days are long and nights longer, but we will get through with God's help and lots of prayers for each other. Know I am here anytime you need me. I love all of you! Glenda

“ We give our condolences to the family. Mrs. Craft was a sweet kind-hearted woman. I have enjoyed getting to know her these last few years. My son and I would go visit her and Mr. Charles, we are a few houses apart. We would sit on the back sunroom , talk and watch the birds and squirrels in the woods. She'll be greatly missed here on earth. The Angels are rejoicing of the new family member, as for Mr. Charles... Like the songs says he's been waiting on his woman!!! She's not of your past, look forward because she is in your future. May God comfort you during this time. In our thoughts and prayers, Neighbors 484 Hood Road Marty, Tracey , and Parker :~) <3
