“ Michael, Jennifer, Mitchell, Max and grandparents: It was w/great sadness that I learned of Maddie's illness and death today. It seems like only yesterday that a beautiful, redheaded almost teenage girl and her little brother w/both a big smile and glasses were the most ardent supporters of their big brother's teenage traveling baseball team A beautiful child from a wonderful family has been taken from us too quickly. Through your wonderful and joyful memories of her life, may you be granted the same peace in this time of grief as she has been granted from her illness. May God bless you.

The people who do know here will remember her warmth, her smile, her laugh and her character. Heaven received another angel and she is home and at peace now. Her body doesn't hurt and she smiles down on all who knew and loved her. Your pain is great and the healing will take time but her life will be celebrated for a long time.
